Frequently Asked Questions

What's the dress code?

Days are casual. Evenings lean resort casual, with two dressier nights. The vow renewal is tropical formal: guava, magenta, papaya, teal, or champagne tones.

Is the Garifuna dance class included?

It's a separate Roatán shore excursion on Day 5. We'll share the booking link once it opens so the group can reserve the same time slot.

Is this kid-friendly?

Yes. Carnival Celebration has kids' clubs, waterslides, and family dining. Youth shirt sizes (YS-YL) are available.

How should I book flights to Miami?

Fly into Miami (MIA) or Fort Lauderdale (FLL). Compare fares on Skyscanner and Google Flights.

When do I need to RSVP and book by?

RSVP as soon as you can. Cabins are held under the group until the deposit deadline of March 11, 2027. Final payment is due in May 2027.

Key Logistics

Documents: A passport is strongly recommended for cruises that stop in Mexico and Honduras. Check Carnival's current boarding requirements before sailing.

Arrival: Plan to be at PortMiami by early afternoon on August 8. Boarding typically begins around 11:00 AM.

Flights: Miami International (MIA) is closest. Fort Lauderdale (FLL) is about 45 minutes north and can save money.

Shirt: The 'Still Cruisin' sail-away shirt is mandatory for the embarkation group photo. Ordering opens soon.
